

Kingsley Kofi Nkansah, better known as Kofi Artist, was born in Accra, Ghana, now lives and work in Gent, Belgium. As a self taught artist, most of his paintings are contemporary portraiture and figurative pieces, with a strong emphasis on cultural dialogue that speaks to larger contextual frame like family, community, and nationalism. Through bold, vivid colours selection, brushstrokes, and palette knife patterns, He promotes thought on Black subjectivity, diversity, and complexity while portraying people from the diaspora and other places. Because of his experience in graphics designing, he is able to portray human emotions and reality on the faces of his subjects. He believes that colours have a significant impact on our lives as humans, hence he is very meticulous and concern when selecting colours for his artwork. In his artworks, he uses African fabrics along with acrylics paints, pastels, and charcoal stick. His painting primarily focus on depictions of African cultures that celebrate, documents, and show novel expressions of blackness.
